Read CheckWriting Terms and Conditions

The authorized signers or trustees appoint the check collecting bank ("the Bank") as agent. The Bank shall present checks drawn by the authorized signers or trustees to the funds ("the Funds") as authority to redeem a sufficient number of shares in the account to cover the amount of the check. The Funds are directed to redeem a sufficient number of shares, unless such shares are certificated or pledged on the Funds' records, and forward the redemption proceeds to the Bank.

American Century Investments may return checks to the account owner and automatically deduct $10 from the account for:

- Checks written for less than $100 or more than $1,000,000
- Checks drawn on insufficient funds
- Stop payments
- Checks drawn on shares that posted to the account within the last seven days
- Checks with any irregularities, such as a questionable signature

It is agreed that neither the Bank nor the Funds are liable for any loss, expense or cost arising from the failure to honor a check or the CheckWriting redemption procedure. It is further agreed that the Funds will not be liable for and will not credit the account for the amount of any unauthorized debit or check with an unauthorized or forged signature or material alteration unless reported to the Funds within 15 days of receipt of the first account statement listing such debit or check. The Bank and the Funds reserve the right to modify or terminate CheckWriting at any time.

American Century Investments reserves the right to not sight-review signatures on checks. It is agreed that American Century Investments does not fail to exercise ordinary care in paying a check solely because it does not sight-review or only sight-reviews checks above a certain threshold level, or on a sample basis, at its discretion.

It is also agreed that if the authorized signer(s) or trustee(s), account owner or any representative of the account owner purchase(s) goods or services from a third party and give(s) information about the account, such as the routing number or account number, to that third party without giving them a physical check, any and all debits to the account initiated by the third party are considered authorized by the authorized signer(s) or trustee(s) and the account owner, regardless of the amount.
