- If you intend to transfer Prime Money Market Fund shares to a not-for-profit or other business account, you must exchange your shares into an eligible money market fund prior to the transfer. Please contact us before completing this form.
- If the person or entity receiving the transfer does not have an existing American Century Investments® account, that person or entity must complete the appropriate account application before the transfer can be made.
- If you transfer shares to a not-for-profit organization, and the organization would like to redeem after the transfer is complete, the required number of individuals authorized by the entity's governing documents must complete a One-Time and Automatic Transactions form or attach signed redemption instructions to this form.
- For transfers of covered shares from taxable, non-money market accounts: The current owner may have chosen a cost basis method other than our default. Once transferred, we will use the default method of Average Cost in reporting cost basis for the newly established account. If a different method is desired, the new owner must complete a Cost Basis Election Form or contact us.
