

Brokerage Investment and Redemption Form

Use this form to add bank account instructions to your brokerage account and/or establish automatic investments or redemptions on your brokerage account.

For investments:

- Before automatically investing into a mutual fund, you must first meet the fund's minimum investment. Some mutual funds are not eligible for automatic investments. Please refer to your prospectus for details.
- IRA holders: Deposits to your American Century Investments® brokerage IRA are counted as current year contributions only. Previous year contributions should be sent by mail or made by calling us.

For redemptions:

- To establish an automatic redemption, you must maintain sufficient money in your money market sweep fund to cover the periodic redemptions and account minimums.

Please print clearly in CAPITAL letters using black ink.
