What investment services and advice can you provide me?

American Century Investments provides the following brokerage and advisory services to retail investors.

American Century Investment Services, Inc.	American Century Investments Private Client Group, Inc.
Brokerage services	Limited recommendations	Advisory services
We offer brokerage services to self-directed investors, including buying and selling securities, such as mutual funds, exchange-traded funds (ETFs), stocks and bonds. You make the ultimate decision regarding the purchase or sale of investments. We do not monitor your account or investments. The minimum initial investment to establish a brokerage account with us is $2,500. That minimum amount is also required to maintain a brokerage account with us.	We also make limited recommendations to investors of one or more American Century family of mutual funds. You can execute this recommendation with the transfer agent for the American Century family of mutual funds or anywhere else of your choosing. You make the ultimate decision regarding the purchase or sale of investments. We do not monitor your account or investments. The account minimum for any of the American Century family of funds which we recommend is generally an initial investment of $2,500 (or $500 with automatic investments of at least $100). Certain account types, such as accounts within an employer-sponsored retirement plan do not have any minimum initial investment amounts.	We offer investment advisory services to investors, including discretionary portfolio management through a wrap fee program. Our wrap fee program includes discretionary investment management, portfolio monitoring and rebalancing and financial planning. Our advice is based on your financial situation, which is evaluated based on detailed information about your personal circumstances like age, investment time horizon, risk tolerance, expectations, and goals. We generally manage our clients' accounts within similarly managed or model portfolios that are comprised entirely of mutual funds and ETFs within the American Century family of funds. If you choose, financial accounts outside of American Century may be aggregated and/or considered in our advice to you. You make the ultimate decision regarding the purchase or sale of these outside investments. We typically require investors to have a minimum relationship size (including assets of parents, siblings and children) of $50,000 held within our model portfolios. This minimum relationship size may be reduced or waived at our discretion.

Conversation Starters for any account type or service offering

Ask your financial professional:

- Given my financial situation, should I choose a brokerage service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

Brokerage services

Our principal fee is a commission charged on buying or selling securities in your account. The commission rate varies based on the type of account and the type of security involved in the transaction. You will pay the same rate but more overall when you make more transactions, so we have an incentive to encourage you to trade more often.

Commissions

- Equity or stock transactions and mutual funds with a transaction fee – starting at $9.95 and generally up to $45.00, depending on your account tier and how you place the trade (online, automated phone system or with a representative).
- No transaction fee (NTF) mutual funds – no cost to buy, sell or exchange shares of participating funds held for 6 months or longer.
- Bond transactions in the secondary market (between investors and not directly from the debtor company or bank) – $3.00 to $5.00 per bond with a $35.00 minimum charge and $100.00 to $250.00 maximum charge, all depending on your account tier.

Account fees

- Account maintenance fee – begins at $50 for certain accounts under $10,000 in assets in the American Century family of funds, and is ultimately waived for accounts at and over $20,000 in assets in American Century family of funds.
- Annual IRA fee – $50, waived for accounts over $10,000.

Commissions for other security types, margin fees and other account or service fees

For more detail about any of the above fees and other fees associated with your account, please see our Brokerage Fees and Commissions schedule in the Forms center at americancentury.com.

Important reminder: Commissions and account fees are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged with respect to the underlying investments, such as management fees and expenses charged by mutual funds, ETFs, closed-end investment companies or other managed investments. The specific fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus.

Limited recommendations

We do not charge any fee for providing our limited recommendations. The only fee you will pay if you choose to execute our recommendation is the underlying mutual fund's fees and any account maintenance fee.

Fund fees

The annual fund operating expenses for the funds we recommend range between 0.71% to 1.56%. You pay this annual fee directly as a percentage of the value of your investment.

Account fee

The annual account maintenance fee for a mutual fund account in one of the funds we recommend is $25.00. The fund will waive this fee with eligible investments of at least $10,000.

Employer plan fees

Participants in an employer-sponsored account will pay one of the following fees, depending on the account type:

- Custodial fee – participants in an employer-sponsored plan set up pursuant to a custodial arrangement (such as a SIMPLE Plan) will pay an annual fee of $15 per fund in the account.
- Participant Service Fee – Participants in a qualified retirement plan (such as a 401(k)) will pay an annual fee of $25.

For additional information, please see our American Century Investments Private Client Group Investment Planner Service Brochure in the Forms center at americancentury.com (Items 4.B and 4.C).

Advisory services

We charge a single advisory fee (wrap fee) based on the value of your assets under management with us. The single fee includes our services, along with any underlying trading costs, commissions, and custody services related to our recommendations. Fees are calculated and deducted on a quarterly basis in advance. The daily market value of the assets under management as of the end of the last business day of the calendar quarter is used to calculate the fee for the next quarter.

Advisory fee

The annual advisory fee is 0.90% on the first $5 million of assets under management and 0.70% on assets under management over $5 million.

As a wrap fee program, our advisory fee covers most underlying transaction costs, commissions, and the brokerage or custody fees of your underlying investments within our model portfolios. In addition, because of our affiliation with the advisory to the American Century family of funds, we quarterly reimburse the Advisory Fee paid for the prior quarter and additional amounts, if any, in an amount totaling the underlying management fees paid over the course of the quarter from holdings a Client has in American Century family of funds within the model portfolios.

The more assets there are in your account, the more you will pay in fees, and we may therefore have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account.

Other fees

In addition to the above fees, there may be other costs assessed, which are not included in the advisory fee, such as charges for transactions executed outside of our recommendations, costs associated with exchanging currencies, wire transfer and electronic fund fees, paper mailing fees, transfer fees, margin and other borrowing costs, other service fees or other fees required by law.

For additional information, please see our American Century Private Client Group ADV in the Forms center at americancentury.com (Items 4.B and 4.C).

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

Provide Your Withholding Instructions – Substitute Form W-4P (OMB No. 1545-0415)

Converting creates a taxable distribution from your existing Traditional IRA. The year after the conversion, we will send you and the IRS Form 1099-R to report the distribution amount. We also will send you and the IRS Form 5498 to report the amount converted. You may want to speak with a tax advisor before you authorize this conversion. Money that you elect to convert from your existing Traditional IRA that has not previously been taxed is subject to federal income tax withholding. You may elect to have withholding applied to your distribution by checking the box below and indicating the rate of withholding.

Remember, even if you elect not to have income tax withheld, you are liable for paying income tax on the taxable portion of your conversion amount. If you elect not to have income tax withheld, or you don't have enough withheld, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient.

If you do NOT want us to withhold federal income tax from your conversion amount, do NOT check the box.

I elect to have federal income tax withheld at the rate of ____%. Percentage must be between 10-100%. If no percentage is indicated, or if you indicated a percentage of 1-9%, withholding will be made at the rate of 10%. Note: State tax will be withheld according to state regulations if, at the time of your distribution, your tax residency is within one of the mandatory withholding states.

Note if you are under age 59½: If you choose to have tax withheld from the converted amount, you must make up the difference out of pocket and add it to your Roth IRA within 60 days or that amount may be subject to a penalty tax. Any amount not rolled over is considered an early distribution.

- I understand that the beneficiary designation submitted herewith is not revoked or changed by any provision of my will, personal trust or other separate agreement (e.g., prenuptial agreement or divorce settlement agreement). I acknowledge that only beneficiary revocations or designations filed with and accepted by American Century are considered valid and enforceable.
- I acknowledge that State Street Bank and Trust Company and American Century shall not be liable for any tax or other consequences in connection with contributions to my IRA.

If you are applying a new designation of beneficiary to all your accounts, please note:

For All Account Owners

- Be sure to obtain spousal consent in step 8, if necessary.
- Review and update your designation periodically, especially if there is a change in your family status (marriage, divorce, birth/adoption of children, death of a family member) or if the information for a beneficiary changes. In the event of a divorce, a designation of a former spouse may not be valid unless you re-designate your former spouse by submitting a new beneficiary form after the divorce is final.

Upon acceptance by American Century Investments, your designation revokes all previous beneficiary designations for the account you selected in step 1. You may change your beneficiaries at any time and the change is effective when the Custodian and plan administrator, if applicable, receives and accepts it. If your designation is not accepted, any prior designation will remain in effect.

Certify Your Tax ID

If you'd like more information about certifying your taxpayer identification number, please review the General Instructions on IRS Form W-9, which can be found at www.irs.gov.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number, and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.

The IRS does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.
